

All About the Ancient World: Presenter Guidelines

1. Schedule: 7-8 weeks total from acceptance
 - a. 3 weeks to submit preliminary documents (script/outline/slides -- PDF preferred)
 - i. Preliminary documents will be approved by the committee within 1-2 weeks
 - b. 3 more weeks after preliminary documents are approved to put together your video and submit it to us (see 3k)
2. Introduction
 - a. Write out an introduction we can use to introduce you - we'll introduce you and edit it into the beginning of your video
 - b. Include name, university/institutional affiliation if applicable, degrees, job, research interests, etc.
 - c. The addition of the introduction does not count toward your total presentation time
3. Making the video
 - a. Time limit 15-30 minutes (probably around 2,000-4,000 words)
 - b. Include video of yourself in the recording if possible
 - c. Use of computer/webcam preferred. If using a phone, be sure to film horizontally
 - d. Can use slides and visual aides
 - e. Be creative! While we do require the approval of your script/outline, you have flexibility with how you present
 - f. Keep in mind this is for a general audience - explain any jargon, define time periods, define regions, etc.
 - g. Speak clearly and slowly - try a few practice clips and listen to yourself
 - h. Check your sound quality with a practice clip
 - i. Include sources on slide/screen for images and quotes
 - j. Recording options
 - i. Zoom recording
 1. Creating a zoom recording:
<https://otl.du.edu/knowledgebase/using-zoom-to-record-a-video-presentation/>
 2. If you do zoom, we would also love if you could review the transcript and send that to us as well to post for accessibility
 - ii. Panopto
 - iii. Powerpoint

1. Creating a video recording in powerpoint:
<https://www.techsmith.com/blog/record-a-presentation/>
 - iv. More details on powerpoint and other screen sharing recording:
<https://sites.reading.ac.uk/tel-support-for-students/2020/03/16/video-presentation-recording-yourself-and-your-screen/>
 - k. Submit video by uploading it to the individual Google Drive folder which was hyperlinked in your official acceptance email.
 - i. Please try to upload your video as an MP4 in 480p (or higher) resolution and 30FPS
4. Considerations for your video
- a. Trigger warnings - state in the video description and as part of introduction
 - i. As part of your introduction and final abstract (video description), consider these recommendations about trigger warnings:
<https://sites.lsa.umich.edu/inclusive-teaching/an-introduction-to-content-warnings-and-trigger-warnings/>
 - b. YouTube requirements
 - i. YouTube's Community Guidelines - particularly the "sensitive content" sections
 - c. Copyright
 - i. Images - use your own, use open source, or reference your sources on the slide
 - d. Accessibility
 - i. Use readable font. This list has recommendations (although avoid the "decorative" fonts)
<https://accessibility.psu.edu/legibility/fontface/>
 - ii. Briefly describe the content of your slides/visual aides
 - iii. No flashing images/anything that might trigger photosensitivity
 - iv. See here for more recommendations of fonts, slide content, etc:
https://docs.google.com/document/d/1sKQ2f6bJRZ-njyut7Kjmya-ncjF30Y0mPqS_DpRs-aQ/edit?usp=sharing
 - e. Video notes
 - i. We'll post your abstract from your submission form (unless you want to update it), with additional content warnings
 - ii. We'll post your select bibliography from your submission form, unless you'd like to submit your full bibliography
 - iii. We'll post a full transcript of your video (for accessibility) as a locked PDF (to prevent plagiarism)

If you have more questions, please don't hesitate to ask us!